

Science, Ethics and Technological Responsibility in Developing and Emerging Countries

RESEARCH, INNOVATION AND DEVELOPMENT: THE SOCIAL FABRIC OF SCIENCE

The policy and ethical perspectives of a dialogue among India, Africa and Europe

The Ethical Dimension of Knowing and Acting:
Science and Technology in the 21st Century India

Seminar programme

University of Hyderabad, India

Conference Hall Department of Political Science,
Social Sciences Building, 1st Floor

29th March 2011

Organized by:

Department of Sociology and Centre for Knowledge,
Culture and Innovation Studies (CKCIS)
University of Hyderabad, India

www.set-dev.eu

SET-DEV: SCIENCE, ETHICS AND TECHNOLOGICAL RESPONSIBILITY
IN DEVELOPING AND EMERGING COUNTRIES (AFRICA AND INDIA)

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

The Ethical Dimension of Knowing and Acting: Science and Technology in the 21st Century India

as part of
SET-DEV project, funded by the European Commission

Date : 29th March 2011
Venue : Conference Hall, Department of Political Science,
Social Sciences Building, 1st floor,
University of Hyderabad, India

Organized by:
Department of Sociology and Centre for Knowledge, Culture and Innovation Studies (CKCIS)
University of Hyderabad, India

SET-DEV: SCIENCE, ETHICS AND TECHNOLOGICAL RESPONSIBILITY
IN DEVELOPING AND EMERGING COUNTRIES (AFRICA AND INDIA)

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

The Ethical Dimension of Knowing and Acting: Science and Technology in the 21st Century India

as part of
SET-DEV project, funded by the European Commission

29th March 2011

University of Hyderabad, India

Conference Hall Department of Political Science, Social Sciences Building, 1st floor

AGENDA

10.00 am
–
11.00 am

- Inaugural session: Presided over by Dr. Seyed E Hasnain, Vice-Chancellor, University of Hyderabad
- Welcome and opening remarks: Prof. E. Haribabu, University of Hyderabad, principal project investigator in India, SET-DEV project partner
- Remarks by Prof. G. Nancharaiah, Dean, School of Social Sciences, University of Hyderabad
- General introduction about SET-DEV project: Dr. Alfonso Alfonsi, SET-DEV scientific coordinator

11.00 am – 11.30 am: Tea break

Session I

11.30 am
–
1.30 pm

General debate: SET-DEV meaning and results, by SET-DEV partners

Chair: Prof. Rajeev Sangal, International Institute of Information Technology, Hyderabad, India
Introduced and facilitated by: Prof. Wiebe Bijker, Maastricht University, The Netherlands

1. Prof. Shambu Prasad, Xavier Institute of Management and Centre for World Solidarity - CWS, India
Knowledge Swaraj: the Indian Manifesto
2. Ms. Wairimu Mwangi, African Technology Policy Studies Network - ATPS, Nairobi
The African Manifesto
3. Mr. Daniele Mezzana, Laboratory of Citizenship Sciences, Italy
Guidelines: General presentation and summary

1.30 pm – 2.30 pm: Lunch break

SET-DEV PROJECT PARTNERS

SET-DEV: SCIENCE, ETHICS AND TECHNOLOGICAL RESPONSIBILITY
IN DEVELOPING AND EMERGING COUNTRIES (AFRICA AND INDIA)

Session II

2.30 pm

–

4.00 pm

Presentations of the results of pilot programs (India and Kenya)

Chair: Prof. Javed Iqbal, Institute of Life Sciences, Hyderabad

1. Pilot programmes, case studies:

- A. Dr. Kameswari and Dr. Prakash, V., Life-HRG, Hyderabad, India
Health care and women
- B. Dr. Ramanjaneyulu, Center for Sustainable Agriculture, Hyderabad, India
Non-pesticidal management of crops
- C. Dr. John D'Souza, Center for Education and Documentation, Mumbai, India
Disasters and Built environment
- D. C. Ramachandrudu, WAASAN, Hyderabad, India
Water Management
- E. Ms. Wairimu Mwangi, ATPS, Nairobi, Kenya
Pilot programme in Kenya

2. Joint program: Dr. Alfonso Alfonsi, SET-DEV project Scientific coordinator

4.00 pm – 4.15 pm: Tea break

4.15 pm

–

6.15 pm

Discussion Groups: SET-DEV perspectives, follow up and dissemination

Report from discussion groups and conclusions

Chair: Prof. Wiebe Bijker, Maastricht University, The Netherlands

Vote of Thanks: Prof. E. Haribabu, University of Hyderabad, SET-DEV partner

6.15 pm: End of the seminar

SET-DEV PROJECT PARTNERS

